3. Matters Arising

That we must concentrate on our newsletter material at our next meeting in October. That Mrs Gillian Simpson (Ossett Commissioner for Guides) be approached to write an article for the back page of our autumn newsletter.

4. Ossett Events – See social calendar

Secretary to look into the possibility of a trip to Ossett Brewery.

We are also looking for a good theatre trip to arrange, perhaps with a meal as well, later in the year.

The trip to Blackpool, hosted by the Blackpool Civic Trust, had now been booked for Sunday, 1 November. This will include a trip up the tower and Grand Theatre with a tour along Blackpool lights on the way home plus a talk on the coach as we travel along the sea front.

Ideas for trips to arrange for 2010 were discussed and the possibilities included a trip to the Lake District and to Beamish in the North East. Other venues were Harrogate Flower Show, Pickering VE Day Forces Weekend. Belvoir Castle, Nottingham, Newcastle Guildhall (Mark P to look into this event for us).

Civic shopper bags to be sold at the Heritage Open Day weekend.

Vox meeting to go along and see how much has been spent on Ossett.

Christmas In Ossett 2009 – costumes are needed for those manning our stall as it is a Victorian theme. To be discussed where to get these from.

Christmas Hamper bags to be made up for the stall. Everyone to provide produce to fill two bags with a Christmas theme.

5. Newsletter and website

We have had over 11,000 hits on our website, which is excellent news. Everyone to think of items for our website and to pass them on to Ian.

We need to think of what might be included in the next edition of our Newsletter.

6. Secretary's report

It was agreed to have an Ossett calendar for 2010. We would ask for pictures of Ossett to be sent to the Chair by the end of August and ask Ian Day to judge which pictures to use. Also six-pack of cards was discussed for general use with views of Ossett.

It was felt more use of the Helen Petch Community Column in the Wakefield Express should be made. Secretary to put regular articles in this and the Society pages.

Secretary read a letter out regarding a national Civic Trust Initiative meeting in Blackpool on October 15th/16th at a cost of £9.95p. It would be good if representatives from Ossett could attend.

An invitation was extended to attend a special event at the Three Houses Inn, Barnsley Road, unveiling the latest blue plaque for Wakefield Civic Society by Lord St Oswald re John Nevison a notorious highwayman who was reputed to have been captured whilst sleeping in a chair in the Inn.

A letter was received re Christmas in Ossett 2009 from Peter Savage which we have replied and paid for a table for this event.

7. Treasurer's report

The Treasurer reported the current balances and there was a reminder to all to pay their annual subs to Lynne.

Subs were paid by Mark Pescod and £10 for bags from Ian Day.

8. Planning Report

The planning report was run through by David Mitchell our Planning Officer.

The Planning Officer is attending the fortnightly Wakefield Civic Trust Planning Group meetings, which now includes Ossett planning as part of their remit. This was considered by the group to be an excellent opportunity to influence thinking about planning in Ossett and was proving to be beneficial from the perspective of the Ossett Planning Officer.

There was very little to report at this meeting due to holidays etc.

9. Roads & Parks

It was reported that roadworks had been started on modifying the road bumps on The Green and progress would be continued to be monitored until the job was completed to everyone's satisfaction.

That it is hoped that a Friends of Church Street Park may be set up with help from Holy Trinity School by some young mum's. To be followed up.
